'Weekend Film Series' Debuts Sunday September 26

Monthly event to be held in Tradewinds Auditorium at Bermuda Underwater Exploration Institute (BUEI)

The 'Weekend Film Series', postponed for a week due to Hurricane Igor, will make its debut on Sunday September 26 in the Tradewinds Auditorium of the Bermuda Underwater Exploration Institute (BUEI).

The Italian box office hit Mid-August Lunch, a gentle comedy -- and the documentary film The Oath, winner of awards at the world's top festivals, will screen at 3 p.m. and 4.30 p.m. respectively.

Tickets, $15, are available now at the BUEI gift shop and will also be available at the door. Both films have been rated PG by Bermuda's Broadcasting Commissioners.

The 'Weekend Film Series', to be held monthly, is a joint production of Bermuda Documentary Film Festival (Bermuda Docs) director Duncan Hall and the BUEI.

Bermuda Docs is on Facebook, where filmgoers can find trailers of the two films.
